

Dr. Dan Host reads to Children of Kids Kampus to celebrate National Eye Health Month

Dr. Dan Host read to children in the Explorer (3 year old) of Kids Kampus on Tuesday, August 26th to celebrate National Eye Health Month at Kids Kampus Early Childhood Center.

Dr. Host read "The Eye Book" by Dr. Seuss and gave the children several tips on taking care of their eyes. Dr. Host also gave the children an opportunity to ask him any questions they had regarding their eyes and the profession of Optometry.

Pathfinder Services, Inc. Marketing Coordinator Jason Meyer noted, "It is a good idea to educate children on the importance of proper eye care. We are thankful to Dr. Host for taking the time to share tips on what children can do take care of their eyes."

Currently there are enrollment openings in the infant, toddler, two, three, four, and five year old classrooms at Kids Kampus.
